

Jacobson Law Group Summer Law Clerk Announcement

The Jacobson Law Group (Jacobson, Magnuson, Anderson & Halloran, P.C., the “Firm”), one of the premier Indian-law firms in the United States, seeks a Law Clerk for the summer of 2026. Located in downtown Saint Paul, Minnesota, the Firm enjoys a national reputation for excellence in providing legal services to Indian tribes and non-Indian commercial interests on Indian-law issues. Founded in 1983, the Firm prides itself on its responsiveness to client needs, efficiency of service, and expansive expertise in Indian law.

Qualifications for candidates include:

- Relevant practice or work experience;
- Demonstrated interest in working in Indian country;
- Demonstrated understanding of tribal and federal Indian law;
- Excellent writing and research skills;
- Superior communication skills; and
- Willingness and ability to work on a broad range of Firm matters.

In addition, it is strongly preferred that candidates possess the following skills and experience:

- Experience working for Indian tribes;
- Completion of one year of law school;
- Proficiency with Westlaw or other legal research platforms; and
- Completion of federal Indian law coursework or similar undergraduate or graduate level course work related to Indian studies.

This is an 8 to 10-week paid position with flexible starting and ending dates for the summer of 2026. The Summer Law Clerk will provide research, writing, and other legal support to the Firm’s various client matters. This will entail conducting legal research, writing memoranda providing analysis and summary of issues, drafting correspondence, and document review and editing.

Members of federally recognized Indian tribes are encouraged to apply.

Applicants should email a cover letter and résumé to Benjamin Pachito at bpachito@thejacobsonlawgroup.com.

Applications must be received by the close of business on Friday, March 27, 2026.
